Women’s Trauma Group
Out of the Shadows

Please consider joining this group if you are a woman who experienced neglect, sexual, physical and emotional abuse in the past. This group is intended for women who are working in individual therapy. This group seeks to explore the specific ways that past abuse and neglect can impact our sense of self, our view of the world and our relationships. It will explore the ways that the past can sometimes show up as an unwelcome guest in our current lives.
